

Holbrook Cultural Council seeks funding proposals

The Holbrook Cultural Council funds projects and events in the arts, humanities and or interpretive sciences which serve the local schools, library, historical society, council on aging, and other organizations within the community.

Organizations, schools and individuals may apply for grants that support these cultural activities within the community. The application process is online and available <http://www.mass-culture.org/> Deadline to apply October 16, 2017.