Interim Chief of Police Selection Committee Volunteers Needed for Citizen at Large Positions

The Board of Selectmen is currently searching for residents to serve on an Interim Chief of Police Selection Committee. This committee, to be established at a Selectmen's on May 14, 2014, will include a retired Chief of Police from another community, Town Administrator William J. Phelan, and three (3) citizens at large. The committee will review applications, examine the qualifications of the individuals and, ultimately, make a recommendation for appointment by the Board of Selectmen.

Any resident interested in serving on this important committee is encouraged to forward a letter of interest, including any information about their career, skills, education, and/or experiences that are relevant to the objective of this committee.

If you are interested, please forward your request for consideration on or before Friday, May 9, 2014 to:

Timothy J. Gordon, Chairman
Board of Selectmen
50 North Franklin Street
Holbrook, MA 02343
